A SILVER LINING.

Miss Sophia Weldon, of No. 2,263 Second avenue, while walking up Third avenue on Thursday night was jostled by two boys, both under twelve years of age, and immediately thereafter missed her pocket-book, containing several dollars in com. She notified sued and arrested the lads. In the Harlem police sta-tion the prisoners gave their names as Joseph Buck-iey and John Hughes, the one living in Kast Seventy-second street and the other in East Seventy-fourin atreet. On being searched nothing was found upon them. As the boys were marched down stairs, how-ever, the officer neard a soit, jugging sound, like unto obtaint sleighbells, and on ripping the lining from Buckley's cost the migsing sliver rolled upon the floor. Yesterday Judge Wheeler committed the pair to await the arrival of their respective parents, who are said to be of good family.

A BAD NIGHT FOR BURGLARS.

At three A. M. yesterday while Officer Frazer was watching two men who had burglariously rifled a clothes line at No. 63 Mott street and were trying to get away with $20 worth of clothing obtained therefrom, he noticed three other men equally suspicious in their movements. Waiting and watching carefully until they were all close together at the corner of Bayard they were all close together at the corner of Bayard and Mulberry streets, he drew bis revolver and commanued them to stop, teding them that he had a shot for each man and would fire if they moved. He then rapped for assistance, which come at once. At the station house the first two gave the names of Tim Dailey and Jim Marshall. The other three, who had burguartously entered a small grootry at No. 85 Bayard street and stole certain goods, gave the names of John Healy, Thomas Gowan and John Whihams. The entire humber were held to $1,000 bail each at the Tombs Police Court.

A CHAS IN THE PARK.

Detective Ferris, of the Central Office, yesterday morning discovered that a couple of burgtars had Dreyiuss' residence, at No. 29 East Sixty-jourth street, and were gathering together a quantity of street, and were gathering together a quantity of wearing apparel which they were prepared to make off with. The officer sprang upon them, but received a blow from one of the men, who forthwith took to their heels. The officer holly pursued them, and at length forced them into Central Park. Here a couple of laborer- joined in the chase. John O'Connor was the chief offender, and to eatch him the detective put forth his best efforts. They had ceared the entant's of the Park and douged about rocks and trees and bridges, and were close on the Mail where an open stretch gave the officer a chance to put the inguity's speed to the test. A moment and he was taken into custody. In the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday he was remanded, as he is said to be an offender who has long preyed upon houses near the Park.

WANT TO BE DIVORCED. Charles W. Boller, on artist of Winfield, L. L. has instituted a suit for divorce from his wife Wilhelmina, alleging that she has been criminally intimate with a man residing in the same village. The parties were married in this city September 2, 1870, and the infidelity complained of occurred, as alleged, in October, 1877. Mrs. Boiler's answer denies every alletober, 1877. Mrs. Boiler's answer denies every allegation except that of the marriage, and alleges that her husband manifested a desire to disgrace ner, and conspired with others to destroy her good name. Counsel for Mrs. Boiler has also filed an amended answer to Boiler's complaint, setting forth as an additional reason why Mrs. Boiler should be granted a divorce, that since the action was commenced Mr. Boiler has been guilty of bigamy by marrying another woman in this city, and that he is now in jail for that crine, being unable to obtain ball.

John Shore, a truckman, residing at Brownville, L. I., such his wife Satah for a pseudic divorce. The cause is before a referee. The defendant denies all the allegations, and alleges a conspiracy against her.

by Stockwell; 3d dam Braxey, by Moss Trooper; 4th dam Queen Mary (dam of Blink Benny and imp. Bonnie Scotland), by Gladiator, &c. This is a light bay, with delicate fawn color between forelegs and flanks. He is a well developed colt, with a long body, supported by a strong set of legs, planty of bone and exceptionally good quarters. He looks every inch as game a racer as the fine combination of blood in his No. 2 Woodcraft, b. c., by imp. The Ili Used, dam

Woodbine (winner of the Monmouth Oaks, Alabama and Hunter Stakes), by Censor or Kentucky; 2d dam imp. Figur des Champs, by Nowmiuster, &c. This is a rich bay, with black points and star in fore-head. Although about the medium size, is a lusty, stout looking coit, and should prove a weight-carrier. No. 3. Happy-Go-Lucky, ch. c., by imp. The lil Used, dam imp. Finke (the dam of Silkstockings, Scratch and many others), by Womersley, &c., &c. This is the gom of the collection, a light golden cheat-nut in color, handsomely marked, with an excellent disposition. He has a deep chest and spearatus, a good, level back and square-made quar-ters, with strength and power to correspond with the long stride his conformation should give him. In good hands he will mature into a grand racer. There will be strong competition in the bidding for this youngster; he is certainly a prize.

No. 4. Salmagundi, ch. c., by imp. The Ili Used, dam
Salamis, by Asteroid, son of Stockwell; 2d dam
Salamanca (Pero Gomez's dam), by Student; 3d dam

This She is an active looking, good bodied filly, and well advanced for the latest foal in the lot. She looked a little rough, not having quite shed her winter coat. It was said that only a few days previous she had dis tinguished herself by Jumping over a five-lost lence and pranced oil with as much nonchalance as it only jumping out of the stable into the pasture.

imp. Adostuda (sister to Pero Gomez, winner of the St. Leger), by Beadsman; 24 dam Salamance, by Student; 3d dam Bravery, by Gameboy, &c. Although one of the latest foals of the grand coterie of yearlings at the Nursery Farm, it was remarkable to note the large, strong and race-like form of all the get of the lil Used. There was no exception, not even in the contrast which the late foals usually have by the aide of the older ones. As a sire The Ill Used, with his limited opportunities, and when we consider his age, is the best and most promising stallion which has yet done service in the Nursery Stud. It is no idle praise in making the assertion. The home of Kengeky, Gleneig, Kingdsher and Count d'Orsay is no only one of the most complete establishments in the country, but within its enclosure the choicest equine families of the most distinguished lineage can be

TORONTO, Ont., May 10, 1878.
Plaisted arrived here yesterday, and it was not long selore he was affont on the Bay. Opinions are dirided as to his condition; but he appears to be drawn too fine. No opportunity has been afforded of comparing of ther man or their styles, nor has a bet been heard of. Habian scaled to-night 163 pounds. He is soit, but icels good for his task. His preparation has been greatly interfered with by the abominably squaify weather of late. Great interest is manifested in the race, and the Mayor will request that it be made the occasion of a half holiday.
